Charlie Whiting and Jean Todt guarantee progress in the Autodromo Hermanos Rodriguez

- Progress at the Autódromo Hermanos Rodriguez impressed Whiting.
 - Jean Todt verified progress on the new Control Tower.

As part of last week FIA activities, FORMULA 1® Race and Safety Director visited Autodromo Hermanos Rodriguez' facilities.

"I am impressed with the progress of works in general and with the quality and professionalism in which they are being carried out. I came just a month ago and the progress is significant". Pointed Whiting.

Whiting walked around 4.305 km of the renovated track and claimed to be calmed and confident that Works will be completed in time.

While, FIA President, Jean Todt, also attended Autódromo Hermanos Rodriguez' facilities before leaving our country and noted the works made to the track, especially the progress in the New Control. Todt toured the Pit Building or Main Building, with over 25,000 m2 where the 33 pits or garages are placed and entered to what it will be the Timing and Race Control.

On the other hand, this weekend the first four of 30 trailers arrived charged with Tecpro, an impact absorbing material that will be placed in maximum security areas as much to the drivers as to attendants. The Tecpro has different measures and weight and it is the latest in security technology in the best tracks of the world.
