Appendix

Additional Information of Grand Prix de Monaco 2016®

- Lewis Hamilton reached his victory number 44 (with a 25.43% of productivity).
- Hamilton placed himself as the third most victorious driver in the history just below A. Prost [51 (with the 25.63%)] and M. Schumacher [91 (with the 29.64%)].
- From this GP on Mercedes is the sixth team of the history on reaching 50 victories (with the 37.59% of effectiveness).
- “Casa de Stuttgart” is the third team in the history, on winning 4 times consecutively in Monaco, only BRM and McLaren had done it before.
- Daniel Ricciardo has been on the podium 11 times, however, this is his first time in 2016.
- Ricciardo got his first F1 Pole Position last Saturday, therefore becoming the 97th driver in the history of F1 on achieving it (with a rate of 1.06, accomplishing it after 94 attempts).
- The Australian wheel beats Mika Hakkinen and Niki Lauda while obtaining points and placing himself in his usual 16th position (with 426 POINTS scored).
- Sergio Perez excelled and reached third place in Monaco. Celebrating his sixth podium, having previously reached it at: Russia (in 2015), Bahrain (in 2014), as well as in Malaysia, Canada and Italy (in 2012).
- Reaching for Mexico its 13th podium and making possible for his country to beat Poland on this sport statistics becoming the 19th nation with the biggest number of podiums, seven from Pedro Rodriguez in addition to those reached by the driver from Guadalajara.
- Force India has reached only four podiums (three by Sergio Perez and one by Giancarlo Fisichella, in Belgium 2009).

- Nico Hulkenberg finished his first 100 starts scoring points, just like he has done in Spain, Russia, China Bahrain and Australia during the current campaign.
- For the Indian team it is their first double hit of the year. On the previous campaign they did it six times.
- Hulkenberg is now the 13th driver of F1, reaching the 100 starts without having won any of them.
- Fernando Alonso, hadn't gotten a best position since GP in Hungary last year, finished in fifth place again.
- It would be his second best recovery in Monaco (they were 4 positions), in 2010 he recovered 18 places.
- On the other hand, Jenson Button his teammate, repeats in Barcelona, and finished 9th again.
- For McLaren is the second time of the season that gets points for two of its units. Finishing sixth and tenth (the Spanish and the British man respectively) in Russia.
- For Honda, it is the third time since they got back to the F1, on getting double score in a GP.
- This would be the GP number 87 –different– in which Hamilton leads a race. Beating the 86 times of Ayrton Senna, however, it is still far from the 142 GP led by M. Schumacher.
- Hamilton surpasses Nico Rosberg becoming now on the driver with the highest number of points scored in Monaco: he's got 116.
- Hamilton and Senna are the only two drivers of the history in winning twice at Monaco without starting from the first line of the Grid. Lewis had previously done it with McLaren in 2008.
- Hamilton gets his fifth podium at the principality, only A. Senna (8), Graham Hill and M. Schumacher (7) ; and finally Prost (6) have got more than that.
